THE|MOLDMEN

I created this artist collection as an attempt to save my now non-existing marriage, proving my sanity, that monsters truly are hiding in-between the cracks of shower tiles. It is not schizophrenia to observe an image from a different light. So, I did society a solid by displaying here some examples of the demons creeping in my bathroom. Also, my apartment complex at that time would not fix anything. I thought the irony it would be, if I took this scummy situation, and made millions selling my mold to rich people. Haha, Enjoy!
